ANIMAL, NUTRITION & FOOD SCI (ANFS)

Courses
ANFS 313. Food Safety and Public Policy. 3 Credits.
An exploration of issues that impact the development of microbiological food safety policy through analysis of how science and risk assessment are used in establishing policy. Pre/co-requisite: NFS 203 or Instructor permission.

ANFS 395. Special Topics. 1-4 Credits.
Lectures, laboratories, readings, or projects relating to topics in animal, nutrition and food sciences. Pre/co-requisite: Graduate standing.

ANFS 491. Doctoral Dissertation. 1-18 Credits.