HEALTH SCIENCES (HSCI)

Courses

HSCI 096. Special Topics. 1-18 Credits.
See Schedule of Courses for specific titles.

HSCI 101. Issues in Cont. Public Health. 3 Credits.
Introductory investigation of public health. Explores the development and scope of the discipline of public health and issues that have been raised with regard to the practice of public health.

HSCI 102. Epidemics in Hist & Imaginatn. 3 Credits.
Explores epidemic disease through the lens of history and fiction.
Students will learn about what makes a disease epidemic or pandemic, how the causes of disease have been discovered, and interventions to stop the spread of disease.

HSCI 130. Health Promotion. 3 Credits.
An overview of health promotion across the lifespan, from local, national and global perspectives. Examination of the influences on health and risk, strategies to promote health, and evaluation of outcomes. Students will engage in 8-10 hours of service learning.

HSCI 140. Struct & Finan of US Hlthcare. 3 Credits.
Organization and financing of the U.S. health care system; discussion of current issues in health reform.

HSCI 195. Special Topics. 1-18 Credits.
See Schedule of Courses for specific titles.