NURSING & HEALTH SCIENCES (NH)

Courses

NH 301. Clin Ethics for Hlthcare Prof. 3 Credits.
Students will analyze clinical and organizational healthcare issues from an interdisciplinatory perspective. Ethical decision-making and inter-disciplinary team skills will be developed. Pre/co-requisite: Graduate standing.

NH 302. Quality in Health Care. 3 Credits.
This interprofessional course provides students with the skills and knowledge needed to apply quality improvement approaches to the design and management of health care services. Cross-listed with: CTS 302.

NH 303. Hlth Promotion & Disease Prvnt. 3 Credits.
Students learn the value of and barriers to health promotion, health protection, and disease prevention, factors that influence personal health decisions, and preventive interventions.