OVERVIEW
Current research interests include history of German language; Medieval literature; literature of the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries; folklore; Exile studies; and translation studies.

DEGREES
- German M.A. (http://catalogue.uvm.edu/graduate/german/germanma/)

FACULTY
Mieder, Wolfgang; Professor, Department of German and Russian; PHD, Michigan State University
Schreckenberger, Helga; Professor, Department of German and Russian; PHD, University of Kansas

Courses
GERM 281. Sem in Lit Genre, Period, Theme. 3 Credits.
Study of a literary genre, period, or theme through close readings of representative texts supplemented by lectures and reports on sociocultural context. May be repeated. Prerequisite: GERM 155 or GERM 156 and one other 100-level course.

GERM 282. Sem on Particular Author. 3 Credits.
Study of author(s) through close readings of representative texts supplemented by lectures and reports on the works' socio-cultural context. May be repeated. Prerequisite: GERM 155 or GERM 156 and one other 100-level course.

GERM 391. Master's Thesis Research. 1-12 Credits.