GRADUATE CATALOGUE

Students at the University of Vermont are responsible for knowing and complying with all requirements for their respective degrees as stated in the catalogue.

The University of Vermont reserves the right to make changes in the course offerings, mode of delivery, degree requirements, charges, regulations, and procedures contained herein as educational, financial, and health, safety, and welfare considerations require, or as necessary to be compliant with governmental, accreditation, or public health directives.

Mode and method of instruction for any given course, including, but not limited to, in-person vs. remote instruction (synchronous or asynchronous), use of mixed formats, and alternative scheduling, is at the discretion of the University.

The following programs are currently inactive and thus do not have a listing in the catalogue: Certificate of Graduate Study in Ecological Design, the Master of Arts in French, the Master of Arts in German, the Master of Science in Engineering Management, the Master of Science in Athletic Training, the Master of Science in Plant Biology, and the Post-Professional Occupational Therapy Doctorate. The Master of Science in Teaching in Biology and the Master of Science in Teaching in Mathematics are not currently accepting applications. The Master of Science in Nursing - Clinical Nurse Leader (CNL) and the Direct Entry- Clinical Nurse Leader (DCNL) programs are not currently accepting applications. The Medical Laboratory Science AMP is not currently accepting applications.

GRADUATE CATALOGUE ADDENDUM

August 6, 2024
The correct Ph.D. granting institution for Dr. Melissa Rocco follows:

Rocco, Melissa; Senior Lecturer, Department of Education; Ph.D.; University of Maryland

May 21, 2024
Education for Sustainability - As approved by the Graduate Executive Committee on April 18, 2024, and in alignment with the recently revised micro-Certificate of Graduate Study (mCGS) guidelines, the number of required credits for the mCGS in Education for Sustainability has been reduced from 12 to 9. EDCI 6440 is no longer a required course.