

DISABILITY STUDIES MCGS

All students must meet the Requirements for the micro-Certificate of Graduate Study (mCGS)

OVERVIEW

This online program explores disability as a natural and integral aspect of being human, emphasizing its cultural, social, and personal significance. Students will develop skills to promote inclusion, address inequality, and advocate for justice to enhance access and equity for people with disabilities. The micro-Certificate is ideal for community members, professionals, and current UVM graduate students dedicated to advancing social change. Credits earned can be applied toward a Certificate of Graduate Study, master's degree, or doctoral degree at UVM.
